

An excellent way for you to support the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka is to leave us a bequest in your will, living trust or with a codicil. One significant benefit of making a gift by bequest is that it allows you to continue to use the property you will leave to charity during your life. Another benefit is that you are able to leave a lasting legacy.

Types of Bequests

There are a number of ways you can make a bequest to our parish:

Specific Bequest. A specific bequest involves making a gift of a specific asset such as real estate, a car, other property or a gift for a specific dollar amount. For example, you may wish to leave your home or $10,000 to the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka.

Percentage Bequest. Another kind of specific bequest involves leaving a specific percentage of your overall estate to charity. For example, you may wish to leave 10% of your estate to the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka.

Residual Bequest. A residual bequest is made from the balance of an estate after the will or trust has given away each of the specific bequests. A common residual bequest involves leaving a percentage of the residue of the estate to our parish. For example, you may wish to leave 30% of the residue of your estate to the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka.

Contingent Bequest. A contingent bequest is made to our parish only if the purpose of the primary bequest cannot be met. For example, you could leave specific property, such as a vacation home, to a relative, but the bequest language could provide that if the relative is not alive at the time of your death, the vacation home will go to the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka.

Bequest Benefits

A bequest is generally a revocable gift, which means it can be changed or modified at any time. You can choose to designate that a bequest be used for a general or specific purpose so you have the peace of mind knowing that your gift will be used as intended. Bequests are exempt from federal estate taxes. If you have a taxable estate, the estate tax charitable deduction may offset or eliminate estate taxes, resulting in a larger inheritance for your heirs.

Restricted Bequests

If you are considering a bequest but would like to ensure that your bequest will be used for a specific purpose, please let us know. We would be happy to work with you and your attorney to help you identify ways to give and meet your charitable objectives. We will also work with you and your attorney to craft language to accomplish your goals.

If you are making a restricted bequest, we recommend that your attorney include the following provision to give the parish flexibility should it no longer be possible for the parish to use your gift as you originally intended:

If, in the judgment of the Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee of the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka, it shall become impossible for the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka to use this bequest to accomplish the specific purposes of this bequest, the Parish of Transfiguration-St. Stanislaus Kostka may use the income and principal of this gift for such purpose or purposes as the Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee determine is most closely related to the restricted purpose of my bequest.
