

CATHOLIC
MIGRATION
SERVICES

FREE LEGAL SERVICES DURING COVID-19

Catholic Migration Services is continuing to provide free legal services to low-income New Yorkers during the COVID-19 crisis. Contact us for a phone consultation today!

WORKERS: Do you have questions about...

- Unemployment Insurance?
- Health/Safety on the job?
- Paid sick and family leave?
- Other rights in the workplace?

Contact the Workers' Rights Hotline or Línea Laboral to learn about your rights as a worker at (877) 52-LABOR or (877) 525-2267.

TENANTS: Do you have questions about...

- Whether your landlord can evict you?
- Being unable to afford to pay your rent?
- Landlord who isn't taking care of your building or apartment?

If you are a tenant in Queens and have questions about tenants' rights during this time, call the Tenant Advocacy Program at (347) 472-3500.

Dial ext. 1019 - Stephani Espinal, Tenant Organizer

Dial ext. 1026 - Andrew Lehrer, Attorney

Dial ext. 1027 - Ahren Lahvis, Paralegal

IMMIGRANTS: Do you have questions about...

- How to obtain or renew an immigration benefit – e.g. DACA, Work Authorization or other form of immigration relief?
- Being a green card holder and want to become a citizen?
- Defending yourself from deportation?

CALL US: For free help and to schedule a consultation...

Contact Catholic Migration Services in Brooklyn at (718) 236-3000 or in Queens at (347) 472-3500, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ¡Hablamos Español!

Important Information: Catholic Migration Services does not provide any financial assistance.