We cannot speak of Jesus without joy, because faith is a wonderful love story to be shared. Bearing witness to Jesus, and doing something for others in His name, means testifying to this beautiful gift that words alone cannot express. —Pope Francis

In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks the disciples "Why are you lacking in faith." In our life's journey, we also must learn to believe in God's presence and to trust in his care. This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to continue show God's love and care to others by assisting families, providing food, and for utility and rent bills.

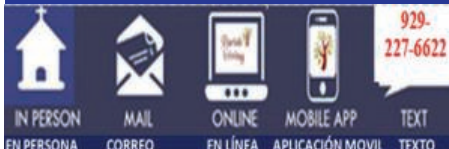

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús calma el mar y luego pregunta a los discípulos: "¿Por qué estáis faltos de fe?". En el camino de nuestra vida, también debemos aprender a creer en la presencia de Dios y a confiar en su cuidado. Este mes, a través de sus donaciones, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl pudo continuar mostrando el amor y el cuidado de Dios a los demás ayudando a las familias, proporcionando alimentos y pagando las facturas de servicios públicos y alquiler.

Ningún donativo es demasiado pequeño... Cada donativo nos ayuda a alcanzar nuestra meta como parroquia.

THE TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Recently I have been receiving requests from members of the Spanish Community to celebrate Masses for Quincenieras. I found this on Google: "Widely celebrated among Latinos, the quinceañera marks an important milestone in a girl's life. Part birthday party, part rite of passage, it symbolizes a girl's entrance into womanhood when turning 15, traditionally showcasing her purity and readiness for marriage. But the quinceañera has also been Americanized." Although I am not a proponent of this celebration, I want to be sensitive to cultural expectations. However, there are certain factors to be considered if someone wants a Quinceniera Mass offered here. The family must live and be registered in the parish for at least one year before the request is made; The young lady must have already received the sacrament of Confirmation; the young lady must be known to one of the priests or deacons in the parish as a regular attendee at Sunday Mass. Depending on the availability of a priest who is comfortable celebrating this type of liturgy, there may be times when an individual Mass cannot be offered and a simple blessing at the end of a Sunday Mass will have to suffice. In the case, the same requirements apply.

Recientemente he estado recibiendo solicitudes de miembros de la comunidad española para celebrar misas de quinceañeras. Encontré esto en Google: "Ampliamente celebrada entre los latinos, la quinceañera marca un hito importante en la vida de una niña. En parte fiesta de cumpleaños, en parte rito de iniciación, simboliza la entrada de una niña a la condición de mujer al cumplir 15 años, mostrando tradicionalmente su pureza y su disposición para matrimonio. Pero la quinceañera también se ha americanizado". Aunque no soy partidario de esta celebración, quiero ser sensible a las expectativas culturales. Sin embargo, hay ciertos factores que se deben considerar si alguien quiere que se ofrezca una Misa de Quinceniera aquí. La familia debe vivir y estar registrada en la parroquia durante al menos un año antes de que se haga la solicitud; la joven ya debe haber recibido el sacramento de la Confirmación; la joven debe ser conocida por uno de los sacerdotes o diáconos de la parroquia como asistente habitual a la Misa dominical. Dependiendo de la disponibilidad de un sacerdote que se sienta cómodo celebrando este tipo de liturgia, puede

ARE WE THERE YET?!

The famous question is asked for the first time.

One morning, a father woke to find his daughter Mara nestled beside him, scribbling in his Bible.

Alarmed, he reached for the pen, but Mara looked up and softly uttered, "Hi, Daddy."

Those words, typical for a three-year-old, filled him with tears. Mara, severely autistic and non-verbal, had rarely spoken before.

Emotions overwhelmed him. The moment pierced the walls he'd erected around his heart. He mourned the daughter he'd envisioned and lamented to God about Mara's world, where she rarely acknowledged his presence.

God's response interrupted Greg's sorrow, speaking to his heart: "I know your pain. I too am a Father, often overlooked by my children immersed in their routines. Despite my efforts to reach them, they live in their own worlds. I sent my Son to convey my love, but what I desire most is a relationship. I don't mind the scribbles on my story; I just long for them to look up and say, 'Hi, Daddy.'"

Una mañana, un padre se despertó y encontró a su hija Mara acurrucada a su lado, garabateando su Biblia.

Alarmado, tomó el bolígrafo, pero Mara levantó la vista y dijo en voz baja: "Hola, papá".

Esas palabras, propias de un niño de tres años, lo llenaron de lágrimas. Mara, gravemente autista y no verbal, rara vez había hablado antes.

Las emociones lo abrumaron. El momento atravesó los muros que había erigido alrededor de su corazón. Lloró a la hija que había imaginado y se lamentó ante Dios por el mundo de Mara, donde ella rara vez reconocía su presencia.

La respuesta de Dios interrumpió el dolor de Greg, hablándole a su corazón: "Conozco tu dolor. Yo también soy un Padre, a menudo ignorado por mis hijos inmersos en sus rutinas. A pesar de mis esfuerzos por llegar a ellos, ellos viven en sus propios mundos. Envié a mi Hijo para transmitir mi amor, pero lo que más deseo es una relación. No me importan los garabatos en mi historia; solo anhelo que miren hacia arriba y digan: "Hola, papá".
