12:30 People of the Parish

Thank you to the to the 1 family at St. Stanislaus Kostka who made a new pledge toward our parish's Annual Catholic Appeal compulsory goals...

If 50 more families pledge $62 each at Transfiguration and If 98 more families pledge $125 each at St. Stanislaus Kostka,

...then we can meet our goals!
($28,843 for St. Stans and $19,186 for Trans)

we hope ALL families in our parishes will join them...

Donations made over our goals are returned to our parishes; the amount we fall short of our goals become our parishes' financial burden.

"But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." - Lk 12:20-21

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Today's reading from Ecclesiastes and today's Gospel from Luke each feature a wealthy and successful individual. The rich man in Jesus' parable thinks he is all set for life, but he is about to get a most unpleasant surprise. At least the character in the first reading realizes he can't take it with him, but this doesn't leave him any happier. Saint Paul's words of advice to the Colossians point to an alternative: "Seek what is above." As we listen to the readings today, let us think of how we should do this.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

This week, as you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you are realizing that in giving you indeed receive.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Now is the time to start planning our priorities for September (since the parish basically follows an academic – September to June – calendar). This provides me with a good opportunity to ask you how satisfied you are with how things are going and if there are any Dynamic Parish dreams for the parish you wish to share. Are there any specific programs you would like the Parish Council to consider offering? I know my priorities are to get the construction at Transfiguration finished and to take a really hard look at our liturgies to see how we can better meet the needs of the community. Feel free to share your thoughts with me or any member of the Parish Council.

Please pray for our Parishioners, Family Members & Friends who are ill and those on our Tree of Life.
