We have been receiving calls at the rectory expressing some confusion about the status of the church. The confusion is caused because the Diocese of Rockville Centre (Nassau and Suffolk) is following a different timeline. However, they are not part of New York City. We are governed by Bishop DiMarzio's office and he, in turn, is taking signals from both the mayor and governor. Hopefully, we will be able to open for more than we currently have soon. This pandemic and its regulations will end - let's pray that we all have the patience and endurance to celebrate that day.
