HAPPY — FATHER'S — DAY

Heavenly Father;

Bless our earthly fathers for the many times they have reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom and mercy that You give us. We honor our fathers for putting our needs above their own convenience and comfort;

Bless those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides. Guide those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children. And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

Amen

Today we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ we hear Jesus ask his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes.

Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

Hoy celebramos el don del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, escuchamos a Jesús preguntar a sus discípulos: "¿Por qué no les das de comer vosotros mismos?" Y les muestra cómo por la multiplicación de los cinco panes y los dos peces.

Hoy, al donar a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, sepa que la multiplicación de los panes y los peces volverá a suceder y los hambrientos serán alimentados.

MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

On this Feast of Corpus Christi, we are all reminded of the sacredness of Holy Communion. It is the undeniable presence of Jesús among us. So as we reverence the Body and Blood of Christ today, we are provided with the opportunity to remember some things we can do on our own. These fall into three categories-before-during-after.

Before we make ourselves mindful of what we are about to do. When I was a boy, we could not eat or drink anything except water for three hours before communion. Although I am not suggesting we return to that (even though we did survive!) it doesn't hurt to be reminded that food and drink-including gum and candy-should not be brought into the church. Keeping our mouths clean and empty helps us focus on the physical presence and taste of the Eucharist-helps us sense a need – a literal hunger – for Christ. We also use the time before receiving to focus on the other elements of the liturgy – the reading, homily, prayers all work together with the Liturgy of the Eucharist of the Eucharist to form a cohesive unit of praise and thanksgiving.

While receiving communion we remember that we have the option of receiving on our tongue or in our hands. If receiving on the tongue, the mouth should be open with the tongue slightly extended. If in the hand, both hands should be extended with the dominant hand (the one you use the most) under the other: so, someone right handed will have his right hand under the left. Once the host has been placed in the palm of the left hand, it can be picked up and put directly into your mouth with the right (or vise or versa). Of course this should be done immediately, not after returning to your seat. In either case, it is your choice how you wish to receive but be sure that either your hands are high enough or your mouth open wide enough so that whoever the minister is knows how you want to receive. The minister will say, "The Body of Christ", to which we respond, "Amen". Clean hands and brushed teeth before receiving communion are simply expected.

Finally, after receiving, we return to our seat for a few moments in quiet prayer. Such a gift from God deserves at least a moment of thanks. Leaving the Church at this time is not only disrespectful to the Blessed Sacrament but a distraction to others and a disruption of the community aspect of worship.

We rejoice together today in this wonderful gift of God's love. As we receive His Body and Blood in reverence, may it make us more like him and enable us to live our day in His imitation.

En esta Fiesta del Corpus Christi, a todos se nos recuerda el carácter sagrado de la Sagrada Comunión. Es la presencia innegable de Jesús entre nosotros. Entonces, mientras reverenciamos el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo hoy, tenemos la oportunidad de recordar algunas cosas que podemos hacer por nuestra cuenta. Estos se dividen en tres categorías: antes, durante y después.

Antes de hacernos conscientes de lo que estamos a punto de hacer. Cuando yo era niño, no podíamos comer ni beber nada excepto agua durante tres horas antes de la comunión. Aunque no estoy sugiriendo que volvamos a eso (¡aunque sobrevivimos!), no está de más recordar que la comida y la bebida, incluidos los chicles y los dulces, no deben ingresar a la iglesia. Mantener nuestras bocas limpias y vacías nos ayuda a concentrarnos en la presencia física y el sabor de la Eucaristía, nos ayuda a sentir una necesidad, un hambre literal, de Cristo. También usamos el tiempo antes de recibir para enfocarnos en los otros elementos de la liturgia: la lectura, la homilía, las oraciones, todo funciona junto con la Liturgia de la Eucaristía de la Eucaristía para formar una unidad cohesiva de alabanza y acción de gracias.

Mientras recibimos la comunión recordamos que tenemos la opción de recibir en nuestra lengua o en nuestras manos. Si recibe en la lengua, la boca debe estar abierta con la lengua ligeramente extendida. Si está en la mano, ambas manos deben estar extendidas con la mano dominante (la que más usa) debajo de la otra: así, alguien diestro tendrá su mano derecha debajo de la izquierda. Una vez que la hostia se ha colocado en la palma de la mano izquierda, se puede levantar y poner directamente en la boca con la derecha (o tornillo de banco o viceversa). Por supuesto, esto debe hacerse inmediatamente, no después de regresar a su asiento. En cualquier caso, es su elección cómo desea recibir, pero asegúrese de que sus manos estén lo suficientemente altas o su boca lo suficientemente abierta para que quienquiera que sea el ministro sepa cómo desear recibirlo. El ministro dirá, "El Cuerpo de Cristo", a lo que nosotros respondemos, "Amen". Simplemente se esperan manos limpias y dientes cepillados antes de recibir la comunión.

Finalmente, después de recibir, volvemos a nuestro asiento por unos momentos en oración silenciosa. Tal regalo de Dios merece al menos un momento de agradecimiento. Dejar la Iglesia en este momento no solo es una falta de respeto al Santísimo Sacramento, sino una distracción para los demás y una interrupción del aspecto comunitario de la adoración.

Nos regocijamos juntos hoy en este maravilloso regalo del amor de Dios. Al recibir Su Cuerpo y Sangre con reverencia, que nos haga más como él y nos capacite para vivir nuestro día en Su imitación.

Catholics originally honored fathers and fatherhood on March 19, the Feast of St. Joseph. As patron saint of fathers, Joseph's feast day became the opportunity to recognize the contribution of "father" to the family. Using St. Joseph as an example, fathers are inspired to be good providers but also loving partners to their wives and just guides to their children. It did not become a permanent national holiday until 1972 when it was so proclaimed by President Richard Nixon.

To all who celebrate today: Happy Father's Day!

Los católicos originalmente honraban a los padres y la paternidad el 19 de marzo, la fiesta de San José. Como santo patrón de los padres, la fiesta de José se convirtió en la oportunidad de reconocer la contribución del "padre" a la familia. Utilizando a San José como ejemplo, los padres se sienten inspirados a ser buenos proveedores pero también compañeros amorosos para sus esposas y guías justos para sus hijos. No se convirtió en una fiesta nacional permanente hasta 1972, cuando así lo proclamó el presidente Richard Nixon.

A todos los que celebran hoy: ¡Feliz Día del Padre!

At Bishop Brennan's request, Msgr. Ed Doran has moved to the Bishop Mugavero Residence at the Immaculate Conception Center in Douglaston. Given the distance, he has chosen to celebrate Sunday Mass elsewhere as of the first Sunday of July. Of course, he is always welcome back and has graciously agreed to substitute when we are in need of extra help. We will all miss him! Msgr. Ed will be coming back on a not-yet-determined Sunday in September to give us the opportunity to wish him well in this new phase of his priesthood. For those who wish to contact him, his new address is:

Msgr. Ed Doran
7200 Douglaston Parkway
Douglaston, NY 11362

A pedido del obispo Brennan, Mons. Ed Doran se ha mudado a la Residencia del Obispo Mugavero en el Centro de la Inmaculada Concepción en Douglaston. Dada la distancia, ha optado por celebrar la misa dominical en otro lugar a partir del primer domingo de julio. Por supuesto, siempre es bienvenido y ha accedido amablemente a sustituirnos cuando necesitamos ayuda adicional. ¡Todos lo extrañaremos! Monseñor Ed regresará un domingo aún no determinado de septiembre para darnos la oportunidad de desearle lo mejor en esta nueva etapa de su sacerdocio. Para quienes deseen contactarlo, su nueva dirección está arriba.

Please pray for our Parishioners, Family Members & Friends who are ill, those on our Tree of Life and for the intentions on our Parish website Prayer Request Page.

Gracious and Loving God,

We ask for your almighty hand to be upon our graduates as they and their families celebrate this grand milestone.

May they find comfort from our community's continued embrace and support as they journey through life.

May they find strength in the excellence of their academic preparation

Bless their lives from this day on with goodness and success.

Enable them

- to stay true to their dreams for your greater glory,
- to discern what is right, good and just, and
- to use their gifts wisely and in service to others.

Empower them to walk into the future with faith, hope, and great love guided by your light so that they may use their talents to become a source of inspiration and blessing for the world.

Amen
